SENIOR A PLAY

A RECORD group representing the Senior A dramatic talent turned out this semester for the play tryouts. From this group a capable cast was chosen by Mr. J. Edmund Spence, and the presentation of "Lilies of the Field" was a huge success. Through skilful direction of Mr. Spence, the Senior A's take pride in one of the best class plays ever presented in this high school.

The story of "Lilies of the Field" concerns the lovely twins whose birthday presents from their grandmother are ten yards of pink crepe de chine and a month's visit in London. When the grandmother realizes how much better the second gift is, she decides that the lucky girl will be the one who most attracts a gentleman, an antiquarian, who is invited to lunch. By a careless word the girl's father gives the secret away to one of the twins who, never sailing under false colors, tells the other. They plan their conquests of the antiquarian and swear that no matter what happens, they will always be "Twins."!

Donning old-fashioned dresses and acquiring a babyish lisp and a respectful attitude, one fortunate twin quite overwhelms the antiquarian and wins the trip to London. Unknown to her, however, he has seen her as she really is, and he leads her through a hectic month of surprising London with trailing skirts, poke bonnets, and long (false) curls. Too late she realizes that she loves him and believes that she must go on with the farce or lose him. The play comes to a happy and amusing close when she finally throws aside her "make-believe" and becomes her real self.

This role of Elizabeth, the erring twin, was given a beautiful interpretation by Josephine Francis, and the part of the other twin, very modern, adorable Katherine, was played by Dorothy Funk. Mrs. Rook-Walter, the twin's grandmother was played admirably by Doris Smith, and Harry Hosmer took the part of the antiquarian. Warren Cornwell and Eleanor Agnew played the Vicar and his wife, parents of the twins. The part of a silly, dapper little man of fashion who changed habits and ideas to please Kitty was taken by Lionel Ridout. Other characters were played by Marian Fisher, Lucille Cathcart, Jewell Elliot, and Burt Anderson.

CLASS HISTORY

NEARLY three years ago this noble edifice of learning was stormed by a group of inexperienced but determined "peagreens." The upper classmen were lined up along the sidewalk to meet and greet them. Having survived this very demonstrative welcome, they embarked upon a highly successful high school career. Now they are about to leave; some to enter the various colleges and universities as underclassmen, others to enter the School of Experience and Hard Knocks as "peagreens."

Just to start off in the right direction, the whole sophomore class merged to form a football team that won the interclass championship in the spring of 1927.

Things ran smoothly for a year and a half, during which the class may have seemed inactive to some observers; it was in fact preparing for the events that were to follow. In the spring of 1929 this apparently dormant class awoke and settled down to work.

The sweater committee, headed by Wade Ambrose and consisting of Josephine Morehouse and Bill Tinker, submitted many satisfactory sweaters to the class as a whole for approval. The sweater chosen was a solid blue slip-over with white felt numerals. The present graduating class is the first in many years to have the slip-over type of sweater.

The ring committee, headed by Ed Thompson and consisting of Eleanor Agnew and Warren L. Patton, submitted twelve rings to the class for approval; and a gold ring with a silver SD on a blue and white background was selected.

It is customary for the Senior A's to give a play each semester; but the Senior B's again showed their originality when they sponsored the play "Icebound" as a method of raising money for the class activities.

As a final memento of their football prowess, the whole Senior class combined to win again the interclass football championship.

At the end of the semester, the class sponsored a School Spirit Week. In the assembly for that week, Lawrence Pritchard, as president of the Senior B's, presented an eighteen-inch cup to the school, to be awarded at the end of each semester to the class showing the best school spirit.

Now the class prepares to leave this, the scene of their many triumphs and happy moments. May they always be as original and successful in later life.

—W. L. P.

CLASS SONG

We have pyramids of memory
 Of the high school we shall ne'er forget
 Good times and friends dear
 Victories we've won here.
 Nineteen Thirty leaves you with regret
 But our thoughts will linger with you yet.
     Hear our song of goodbye
     Though we leave with a sigh
     We'll remembr to be true
     To the dear old White and Blue
         Dear High School
     So we pass on our way
     From our Castle of Gray
 And sing our song of goodbye
 To San Diego High.

COACH HOBBS ADAMS

LEWIS WISLER, MGR.

VARSITY SQUAD

VARSITY FOOTBALL

THE Gray Castle Varsity Football squad of 1929 has come through the season with second place in the Coast League. The lettermen, Ashley Bown, Gerard Buchard, Bus Currier, Al DeBus, Joe Gentillalli, Don Giddings, King Hall, Dick Martin, Al Moore, Jack Patterson, Felix Pangeline, Eugene Price, Ed Reed (Capt.), Ray Russell, Alonzo Rodriguez, Manuel Riverall, Tom Salisbury, Gene Schoettler, Melvel Simpson, Ed Thompson, Irvine Warburton, Jim Whitley, and Ted Wilson under the direction of Coach Hobbs Adams, assisted by Mike Morrow, Captain Ed Reed, Manager Lewis Wisler, and Trainer Bob Houston have done splendid work, and our school is proud to have such a fine group of "cavemen."

The first game of the season started the ball rolling when San Diego won a victory of 32 to 0 from Glendale in the Gray Castle stadium. The next week the San Diego team journeyed to Alhambra where the score was 39 to 14 in the former's favor. But victories cannot last forever. San Diego suffered its first and only defeat at the hands of the Long Beach Jack-rabbits, the score being 20 to 13. Although the results of the game proved disappointing to all San Diegans, the true sportsmanlike spirit of our cavemen and the student body in general served only to stimulate our enthusiasm.

By the time the Pasadena game was scheduled everyone was full of pep and ready to back his team to the limit. The game played on our opponents' ground was featured by many thrills, and the spectators certainly got their money's worth. There was no scoring made until the last quarter when the Bulldogs made a touchdown. The score was then 6 to 0 Pasadena's favor. However, a game is never finished until the final gun shot, and in the last four minutes our cavemen made two touchdowns, thus making the final score, San Diego 13; Pasadena 6. The effect of the spectacular plays on the grand stand can best be described by Will Rogers' definition of football, "A game which makes sane people act like raving maniacs." The Santa Ana game was equally thrilling, a touchdown being made in the last quarter by the cavemen. The final result was a score of 6 to 0 in favor of San Diego. The game completed a successful football season.

The result of the two Non-League games was as follows:

San Diego 27	Army and Navy Academy 0
San Diego 21	Bakersfield Jr. College 0

Each boy on the football team played his part in the games, and cooperation among them resulted in the good scores made. The high scorers of this year's cavemen are:

Warburton	42 points for League games 60 points for Non-League games
Reed (Capt.)	24 points for League games. 48 points for Non-League games
Salisbury	13 points for League games

Everyone of the boys on the team outdid himself to make this season's football a success and the team, the captain, the coaches, the manager, and the trainer all deserve the highest praise.

CLASS B FOOTBALL

THIS year's Class B football team, in spite of being the smallest in the history of light-weight football here at the Hilltop, successfully defended the Coast League Championship won in 1928. In two additional post-season games with El Monte and Whittier, they annexed the Southern California Championship. Coach Glenn Broderick successfully coached his fifth Class B team this year and tutored his charges through an undefeated season, the San Diego team scoring 190 points and their opponents 38. A great deal of credit is due Coach Broderick and the members of the team for their hard work and splendid sportsmanship. Through its fine playing it has brought a good deal of honor to the San Diego High School.

The only lettermen back from the 1928 team were Captain Curtis May, Jack Wallace and Harry Robertson. Those who will receive letters this semester are Jack Dawson, Ray Antrim, Tony Salmon and Lawrence Jones, ends; Bill Graham, Frank Favro, Wesley Holtzinger and John Bassett, tackles; Captain Curtis May, Ray Holt, Jack Wallace, and Arthur Riveroll, guards; Art Jacobs and Rex Ball, centers; Gene Miller and Fred Brebner, quarterbacks; Morris Schreibman, Fred Gentles and Harry Robertson, fullbacks; Alfred Obayashi, George Wadham, Harold Savage and James Trompas, halfbacks.

Scores of the games were:

San Diego	20	La Jolla Varsity	6
San Diego	13	Alhambra -	0
San Diego	19	Glendale -	6
San Diego	20	Long Beach -	13
San Diego	26	Pasadena -	0

Thrift Accounts are Care-Free and Worry-Free Exempt from City, County and State Taxes

... One of the best habits any young man can have is that of regularly and systematically setting aside a part of his income, however small that income may be.

... This institution encourages the accounts of young people. We are glad to cooperate with them in their efforts to accumulate funds over a period of years. Our encouragement, advice and assistance are all at their disposal.

... If you want your savings account to be an essential factor in a happy, successful and useful life, you will keep it constantly growing and make it the foundation stone on which to base your progress.

Mandy, the colored laundress, picked up a magazine and began to turn over the pages aimlessly. Then she seemed to be fascinated by one of the pictures.

"Who dat woman, Miss Blank?" she inquired.

"That's Queen Elizabeth, Mandy," said Miss Blank.

Mandy seemed to be stricken dumb. Finally she burst forth breathlessly, "Am dat de Queen, Miss Blank? My land, what a homely woman! My land, what a ugly woman! Why, Miss Blank, that Queen ain't no better looking than you is!"

"Why?"

"She went to a party last night where they played a game in which the men either had to kiss a girl or pay a forfeit of a box of chocolates."

"Well, how was your sister lucky?"

"She came home with 13 boxes of chocolates."

All in one evening she offered the following, while dancing with me:

"The hall is so hot I'm cooked."

"I'm crazy about dancing."

"I was petrified when I saw him."

"That light is so glaring it makes me blind."

"Can't you shut the window? I'm froze stiff."

"You make me sick."

"I nearly had a fit when he told me about that joke."

"That last partner I had drives me insane."

"I simply died laughing."

"I was perfectly dumb."

"I'm so tired, I'm just dead."

Then, when I looked at her, she seemed as alive and healthy as ever.

The young performers were having a debate, and when they had all agreed that England was just about as bad as it could be, a grim-faced man arose.

"What you seem to want, friends, is a place where everyone has got to be good by law."

"That's it," agreed the reformers. "Where smoking is not allowed and such a thing as drink is unknown. Where no one need worry about food and clothes. Where everyone has to go to church and everyone keeps regular hours."

"Oh, to find such a place," said a soulful fellow.

"Easily found," replied the grim man. "I've just come out from doing twelve months in one."

"I'm going to Mexico next week."

"Well, bomb voyage."

A Swedish farmer came into town recently to apply for naturalization papers and the judge asked him if he was satisfied with the general condition of the country, to which he replied that he was.

"Does the form of government suit you?" queried the judge.

"Yah, it bane all right," answered the Swede, "only ay would like for to see more rain."

"Both Herbert and Harold proposed to me yesterday," said Cora.

"And you refused them both," declared Cynthia.

"Yes, but how did you know?"

"I saw them shaking hands over something in the street this morning."

"Michael's mother had married again and though Michael did not object to his new father, he was somewhat puzzled as to their relationship.

"Mother," he said, "is this man my stepfather?"

"Yes, dear; he's your stepfather."

"Well, mother," continued the child, "you call me your little lad."

"Yes, dearie, you are mamma's little lad."

"Then, mother," continued Michael, "I suppose I must be my stepfather's little stepladder."

A woman told the local faith healer that her husband was very ill. He replied:

"Oh no, dear lady, there is no such thing as illness. Your husband only thinks he is ill."

A week later he met her again.

"Well, how is your husband today?" he asked.

"He thinks he is dead, sir," was the reply.

A MESSAGE TO THE STUDENTS OF THE SAN DIEGO SENIOR HIGH:

The Student Store of the San Diego High School wishes to state that it has been an institution in the Castle on the Hill since 1919, and that since that time we have served students with supplies to the best of our ability. We feel that this year we have not had the whole-hearted patronage we deserve. We wish to tell the Students in this institution that we represent you and are for you 100%. The store endeavors to give you the best possible goods at the lowest possible prices and this is the reason you owe it to us to trade here. Anything made over margin goes into the Associated Student Body and is invested in the things you want for the benefit of the school.

At this time the store wishes you all the best possible success for the coming semester.

Johnnie was gazing at his one-day-old brother, who lay squealing and yelling in his cot.

"Has he come from Heaven?" inquired Johnnie.

"Yes, dear."

"No wonder they put him out."

A married couple were touring in Sicily. At a distance from one of the large towns, the wife said, "Think, Albert, if the brigands should come now and take me from you!"

"Impossible, my dear."

"But supposing they did come and carry me away, what would you say?"

"I should say that the brigands were new to the business—that's all."

A girl is as strong as her weakest moment.

An old farmer and his wife visited the zoo. When they halted before the hippopotamus cage he remarked, admiringly, "Darned curious fish, ain't it, ma?"

"That aint a fish; that's a reptile."

So the argument began. It progressed to a point of such violence that the old lady began belaboring the husband with her umbrella. The old man dodged and ran, with his wife in pursuit.

The trainer had just opened the door of the lion's cage, and the farmer popped in. He crowded in behind the largest lion and peered over its shoulder fearfully at his wife, who, on the other side of the bars, shook her umbrella furiously. "Coward," she shouted. "Coward!"

"Your husband is simply wild about you, isn't he?" asked Phyllis.

"Yes," replied Doris. "He raves about me in his sleep, but the poor absent-minded fellow nearly always calls me by the wrong name."

Lady at Bargain Counter: "Is my face dirty, or is it my imagination?"

Henpecked Bundle Carrier: "I don't know about your imagination, but your face is clean!"
